

in the United States that has a strict liability law for these chases. And it's because we have people like Senator Chambers in here and others who...and it's not just Senator Chambers, 'cause he couldn't do it alone, but it's other people who continually prohibit this type of legislation from passing. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Witek. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President and members of the Legislature, Nebraska has been first with reference to a number of issues, and it's because I brought them. Does that make it wrong? Senator Witek, I'd like to ask you a question while you're coming to your desk. The question is...well, she doesn't have to answer, it's rhetorical. Suppose Nebraska is the only state that prohibits casino gambling. Should Nebraska cease to be the only state that prohibits casino gambling, Senator Witek?

SENATOR WITEK: We're not discussing casino gambling...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I know, thank you.

SENATOR WITEK: ...at this time, Senator Chambers. I...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Do you see what I'm talking about? You see how silly some of those points are? They make no sense. If it goes her direction, it's good for Nebraska to be the only one. She doesn't even understand what this bill that we're talking about deals with. If she'd been in here and listened and tried to get an understanding, she would have heard Senator Maurstad answer one of the most crucial questions when I asked him about his amendments, does he have one up there to take out the negligent standard. No. And for Miss Know-It-All's information, yes, she knows everything, she knows why Nebraska is number one. Because of me. And I thank you, Senator Witek, for the acknowledgement. I don't have an amendment on that bill, Senator Witek, does that surprise you? It blows her mind. Blows her mind. She thought she's going to run up there and see fifty amendments from me. I haven't put an amendment on the bill. And I'm the one who sees all these problems with it. So before we even get to my amendments, other senators have amendments up there, including Senator Maurstad. Now is he offering them just so you can't vote on the bill? He finally sees a lot of the things that are wrong with it. And
